All posts involving direct contact with vulnerable children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

The amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found on the Disclosure and Barring Service website.

Have you ever been convicted of a criminal offence which is not 'protected' YES/NO

If you have answered yes, supply details of all convictions in a sealed envelope marked "confidential" and attach to this form. If your application is successful this information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

It will be necessary for all successful candidates to have a Disclosure and Barring Service check. Do you have a current CRB or DBS report? Yes/No Date of issue

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATIONS 2018 Information from this application may be processed for any purposes registered by The Trust. Under Data Protection legislation, individuals have the right of access to personal data held about them by The Trust. This information will be disclosed only to the persons authorised to see it, will be used for the selection process and, for successful candidates, will be retained on their personnel file, used for payroll and administrative purposes, and may be disclosed to Government departments where there is a legal obligation to do so. Information held about unsuccessful candidates will be destroyed after 6 months.

The Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff to share this commitment. It is also committed to opposing all forms of discrimination and ensuring that it provides equal opportunities in employment.

I confirm that the above information is complete and accurate and I understand that any offer of employment is subject to a) references which are satisfactory to the school b) a satisfactory medical report, if appropriate. I confirm that I have not been disqualified from working with children, cautioned or sanctioned in this regard. I confirm that to the best of my knowledge the information I have provided on this form is correct and I accept that providing deliberately false information could result in my dismissal.

Following KCSIE guidelines, we shall be carrying out online checks for all shortlisted candidates and will share the results with the candidate.
